

Share Your Lunch With the Lord

© 2007 Christopher M Solaas

Well, my Mom and my Dad took me out of town
To hear Jesus talk, and we all sat down
He taught many things that we needed to know
But the day dragged on and the sun sank low.

Well my stomach was saying 'It is time to eat.'
For it started to rumble, and almost to speak.
Thankfully Mom had made us all a lunch,
5 loaves and 2 fish, just enough to munch.

Chorus(twice):

Share Your lunch with the Lord
Give Him what you've got.
It will all be enough, though it's not a lot.
Though it may be small in the eyes of Man,
It can serve the whole world when it's in His hands.

But the Master asked if there was food to share
And I knew that we didn't have much to spare
But I brought what I had, and He passed it around
And my lunch fed the multitude there on the ground.

Chorus:

2nd Chorus (twice):

Share Your Self with the Lord
Give Him what you've got.
It will all be enough, though it's not a lot.
Though you may be small in the eyes of Man,
You can serve the whole world when You're in His hands.

You can serve the whole world when You're in His hands.
