Intro:

Verse 1:

Dsus2 G5
Far, far away from the sound of any battle
D Dsus2 Em A
An aging mother wept, with her face to the floor
G D
Before the throne of heaven She lifted up her voice
Em Em7 Asus4 A
To beseech the Lord of Glory To deliver once more.
Dsus2 G5
And the Lord of Heaven heard the cry
D Dsus2 Em7 A
His weeping daughter gave.
G D
And the tide of battle turned, and Israel was saved
Em Em7 Asus4 A
And the Philistines were vanquished on that day.

Chorus:

D5 D
Unsung Heroes!
Em
Down on their knees.
F#m G A
Praying for the heart of God to turn their way!
D5 D Em
And who knows How many Unsung Heroes
F#m G Asus4
Battle every day! Praying God will guide you
A Dsus2 G5 Dsus2 G5
And help you on your way.

Verse 2:

Dsus2 G5
In a wheelchair In a nursing home in Memphis
D Dsus2 Em A
There sits an ancient lady forgotten by the world
G D
And her hands, they may be feeble But she folds them now to pray
Em Em7 Asus4 A
And the Lord of All Creation Sees 'Daddy's Little Girl!'
Dsus2 G5
And that lady is our church's greatest hero
D Dsus2 Em7 A
And only heaven knows the work She's doing in His name!
G D
And there are thousands like her, Secret soldiers for the Lord
Em Em7 Asus4 A
Seeking neither fame nor reward.

Chorus: (2 times)
