

The Two Thieves

Verse 1:

On a hill outside Jerusalem two thieves hung on the cross

Paying for their sins with their lives

And between them hung a man who claimed to be the Son of God

And the people stood around to watch Him die.

Chorus:

They say that He saved others, that He made the blind to see

That He walked upon the waters of the Sea of Galilee

If He's healed so many others let Him heal Himself instead

He won't fool anybody

When He's dead.

Verse 2:

And the thief upon the left
They had to drag him through the street
From the prison at the bottom
To the Hill called Calvary
And he cursed his Jewish brothers
And he cursed his Roman guards
And he heard them mock
The man they came to see.

Chorus:

They say that You saved others
That You made the blind to see
That You walked upon the waters of
The Sea of Galilee
If You've healed so many others
If You're who You claim to be
Then save us from this death and agony.

Verse 3:

But the thief upon the right
Rebuked him on the left
“Don’t you fear God,
Seeing we are all condemned?
And you and I are guilty
And we both deserve to die
But the man between
Is innocent of sin.”

Chorus:

“I believe that You saved others
That You made the blind to see
That You walked upon the waters of
The Sea of Galilee
Lord, You’ve healed so many others
Could You save a thief like me?
When You come into Your own
Remember me.”

Verse 4:

On a hill outside Jerusalem
Two thieves hung on the cross
One fighting death with passion
One welcoming with sighs.
For between them hung a man
Who was the Holy Lamb of God
Who said “Today you’ll stand
With Me in paradise.”

Chorus:

And it’s True that He saved others
That He made the blind to see
That He walked upon the waters of
The Sea of Galilee
And it doesn’t matter what you’ve done
He won’t turn you away
Won’t you open up your heart to him today?
