

I Will Meet You

Words and Music ©2006 Christopher M Solaas

Intro:

Verse1:

Early in the morning when it's just before the dawn

I stumble down the stairs and put a pot of coffee on

With my bible and my cup, in my comfy chair

I will meet You there.

Verse2:

Before I open up Your Word I bow my head to pray
The light of Your presence makes the darkness flee away
Asking Your forgiveness, as Your light reveals my sin
I will meet You again.
Meet You again!

Chorus:

In the quiet of the morning, God will meet with me

I don't need to take a number, God is always free!

No referral, no appointment, Or waiting in a line

The One who made the Universe Will see me anytime!

Anytime!

Verse3:

Finding words to tell You as the tears course down my face
How grateful I am for Your love and never-ending grace!
And while I'm struck with wonder at the price You had to pay,
I will meet You today!

Verse4:

I open up Your book and read the Words You wrote for me
Of how You came to live and die to set the prisoner free.
What a joy this morning for me to perform this vow,
I will meet You now.

Chorus:
